Golf

Mohegan Sun Country Club at Pautipaug is an 18-hole championship golf course that invites Mohegan Sun guests an opportunity to play on one of the truly hidden gems of southeastern Connecticut. The Mohegan Tribal Gaming Authority (MTGA), the operators of Mohegan Sun, purchased Pautipaug Country Club in Franklin, Connecticut in June of 2007 for more than $4 million. The golf course was renamed Mohegan Sun

Country Club at Pautipaug, and opened as a private facility for members, casino and hotel guests and convention goers.

Established in 1960, the Pautipaug Country Club is a private 18-hole championship golf course complete with a pro shop, clubhouse, driving range, banquet facility and swimming pool. It has been recognized statewide for its impeccable greens and lavish fairways, gently rolling through the scenic hills of southeastern Connecticut. Renowned Architect Geoffrey Cornish, who has designed more golf courses in New England than any other architect, designed Pautipaug Country Club. A renovation in 2002 by Architect Steven Kay resulted in several new teeing areas and the most playable bunkers in southern New England.

Mohegan Sun, owned by the Mohegan Tribe, is one of the largest, most distinctive and spectacular entertainment, gaming, shopping and meeting destinations in the United States. Situated on 240 acres along the Thames River in scenic southeastern Connecticut, Mohegan Sun is within easy access of New York, Boston, Hartford and Providence and located 15 minutes from the museums, antique shops and waterfront of Mystic Country.
