

Executive Biographies Mohegan Sun Management Team Mohegan Tribal Council

Kevin Brown “Red Eagle” Chairman Mohegan Tribal Council

After being elected to the Tribal Council in his first candidacy, Kevin P. Brown, “Red Eagle” was also selected as Chairman on October 7, 2013, his first day of holding office. He arrives back home to Uncasville, Connecticut after a 25 year career in the United States Army with extensive leadership and organizational management experience in deployed combat environments. Brown also held stateside management of a large Army base at Fort Riley, Kansas. At Fort Riley, his military role was the equivalent of city manager for a small city of 55,000.

He is well prepared for his position as Chairman, having led complex organizations of between 150 and 4,000 soldiers, sailors, airmen and government civilian employees, and also having experience in managing multimillion dollar operational budgets. Additionally, he has served as an analyst at the Pentagon in Washington DC following attainment of a Master of Science in Operational Research and Systems Analysis at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, CA. Brown also holds a B.S. in Aerospace Engineering from the United States Military Academy, a Master of Arts in Public Diplomacy from Norwich University and a Doctoral Candidacy in Security Studies from Kansas State University.

Mitchell Etes Chief Executive Officer Mohegan Tribal Gaming Authority (MTGA)

Born into a family of hoteliers, Mitchell Grossinger Etes has a lifetime of hospitality experience and 20 years with Mohegan Sun and MTGA, as he was an instrumental member the casino's pre-opening team in 1996 as Senior VP of Marketing.

In 2004, Etes was elevated to President and Chief Executive Officer to oversee the overall management and operation of Mohegan Sun, the Northeast's premier entertainment destination. Shortly thereafter, Etes was appointed CEO of MTGA, an instrumentality of the Mohegan Tribe, who own and operate Mohegan Sun. For several years, Etes held dual roles as CEO for MTGA and President & CEO for Mohegan Sun until 2011, where focus then became solely on corporate diversification as CEO for MTGA.

After a transition in 2015, where Etes took on a vital advisory role for the Mohegan Tribe, he returned as CEO of MTGA in mid-February of 2017.

Prior to his time with Mohegan Sun, Etes worked in several high-level marketing positions at destinations like Players Island Resort • Casino • Spa in Nevada and Trump Plaza hotel & Casino in Atlantic City. Additionally, Etes worked in virtually every capacity – and finally as General Manager – at his family's Grossinger's Hotel in Grossinger, New York. It was here that Etes, who was raised at the hotel, got his early training in the hospitality industry.

A graduate of New York City's Columbia University, Etes resides in East Lyme, Connecticut with his wife Karen.
