

AREA ATTRACTIONS

Mystic Country's Multitude of Attractions Just Moments Away from Mohegan Sun

Historic sites, museums, marine life and parks promise exciting multi-day vacation adventures

Visitors to Mohegan Sun will also discover Mystic Country, a region rich in compelling museums, attractions, vineyards and more. A trip to Mohegan Sun serves as the springboard for an unforgettable getaway, whether a romantic trip for two, an action-packed trip the whole family can enjoy, or a solo retreat.

The scope of things to see and do near Mohegan Sun is extensive - from maritime museums and historic sites, to parks, galleries, breweries and the world's largest multi-level go-karting track. Visitors can also take advantage of seasonal recreational activities such as boating, fishing, golfing, biking, camping and summer sunning on the Connecticut shore, as well as skiing and ice skating in winter. Year-round possibilities include performing arts shows, fine factory outlets and a variety of great local shops.

The following is a sampling of things to see and do in southeastern Connecticut. For more ideas and information, visit mystic.org

Museums

Children's Museum of Southeastern Connecticut: The Children's Museum of Southeastern Connecticut is an interactive, hands-on, educational opportunity for children through grade five. Visit the Creation Station, climb up to the Tree House or pilot a fishing boat, then head to Captain Scott's Fish Market. The museum also includes a special area for toddlers. Other hands-on exhibits include the Global Market & Café, an outdoor garden, construction exhibit, live critters, arts & crafts and much more. The Children's Museum is located at 409 Main Street in Niantic. childrensmuseumsect.org

Submarine Force Museum: The museum documents the development of submarines, from David Bushnell's Turtle, constructed in 1776 to the Navy's modern submarines. It is the Navy's official submarine museum. Visitors can tour the NAUTILUS, the first nuclear-powered submarine. There is bus and R/V parking, and a picnic area that has seating for up to 50. Located at 1 Crystal Lake Road in Groton.

ussnautilus.org

Lyman Allyn Art Museum was established in 1926 by Harriet Upson Allyn in memory of her father, Lyman Allyn, as a place for local citizens to learn about art and culture. Housed in a handsome Neo-Classical building designed by Charles A. Platt, the permanent collection includes over 10,000 paintings, drawings, prints, sculptures, furniture and decorative arts, with an emphasis on American art from the 18th through 20th centuries. Exhibitions include works from the permanent collection as well as traveling exhibitions of contemporary arts in all media. The museum is located at 625 Williams Street in New London. lymanallyn.org

Mystic Seaport Museum -- The nation's leading maritime museum. Explore American maritime history firsthand as you climb aboard historic tall ships, stroll through a re-created 19th century coastal village or watch our working preservation shipyard in action. Mystic Seaport is located at 75 Greenmanville Avenue (Route 27) in Mystic. mysticseaport.org.

Old Lighthouse Museum: The first government lighthouse in Connecticut was built in 1823. A climb to the tower offers a panoramic view of Long Island Sound, and the public can enjoy exhibits tracing the history of the community first settled in 1649. The lighthouse is located at 7 Water Street in Stonington.

stoningtonhistory.org

Slater Memorial Museum: Situated on the Norwich Free Academy campus this museum has Greek, Roman and Renaissance casts, 17th to 20th century American arts and furnishings, American Indian artifacts, plus Oriental, African and European art.

Contemporary artists are also highlighted through changing exhibitions. Slater Memorial Museum is located at 108 Crescent Street in Norwich. slatermuseum.org

The Tantaquidgeon Indian Museum is the oldest Native American museum in the country, and was founded in part by Gladys Tantaquidgeon, the Mohegan Tribe's medicine woman. Opened in 1931, the museum has a collection of artifacts made and used by Mohegan Indians. The museum is located at 1819 Norwich-New London Turnpike in Uncasville.

Nearby The Tantaquidgeon Indian Museum is also the brand-new Mohegan Tribe Cultural Preservation Center. This new complex is home to an exhibit space that will feature Native themed shows throughout the year, as what is running currently through January 31st, 2020: "Our" Story: 400 Years of Wampanoag History." Winter hours for The Cultural Preservation Center are Tuesday - Friday, 10:00am to 4:00pm and group visits can be arranged by calling 860.862.8075. The location of the Exhibit Space is 1 Church Lane, Uncasville, CT.

Tours and Cruises

Essex Steam Train & Riverboat: Two and a half hours of fun for all ages, the 100-year-old Essex Steam Train takes guests on a nostalgic tour of some of the Connecticut River Valley, during which guests meet up with a riverboat for a spectacular cruise heading north on the Connecticut River toward Gillette's Castle. For an even more memorable experience, visitors can enjoy the dinner train. Rides take place, rain or shine, May through October. The Essex Steam Train & Riverboat are located at 1 Railroad Avenue, just off Route 154 in Essex.

essexsteamtrain.com

Connecticut River Expeditions: RiverQuest offers a wide variety of tours of the Connecticut River including annual eagle cruises, where visitors can spot bald eagles nesting along the river's banks, sunset cruises, and daily eco tours. Local history, expert knowledge on floral and fauna, and fabulous views of large and historic homes, and quiet coastal areas abound. RiverQuest leaves from the Connecticut River Museum at 67 Main Street in Essex. ctriverexpeditions.org

Marine Life

A visit to Mystic Aquarium: will get you as close as possible to ocean animals-- reach in and touch a ray or take part in a special ray feeding program. Go beak to nose with an African penguin and feel the splash of a beluga whale all in interactive programs which let visitors touch the animals. Other adventures include a sea lion show in the marine theater and the thrill of the ride on the XD Motion Theater. Mystic Aquarium is also home to an incredible frogs exhibit, where a variety of amphibians from around the world are showcased digital interactives and more. Mystic Aquarium & Institute for Exploration is located at 55 Coogan Boulevard in Mystic. mysticaquarium.org

Historic Sites/Homes

Gillette Castle State Park: Located at 67 River Road in Hadlyme (East Haddam) is a restored 1919 castle that belonged to actor William Gillette and underwent a major renovation in 1998.

Monte Cristo Cottage: The boyhood home of playwright Eugene O'Neill, this National Register Landmark at 325 Pequot Avenue in New London is filled with an extensive collection of artifacts and offers a permanent exhibition on the life and works of Eugene O'Neil.

Nathan Lester House: At Long Cove and Vinegar Hill Roads in Gales Ferry, this 18th century farmhouse still retains its original out-buildings and museum on a 100-acre site crossed with hiking trails.

Thomas Lee House: One of Connecticut's oldest frame houses, this building still possesses framing details; located on Route 156 in Old Lyme.

Parks/Nature

Connecticut College Arboretum: Situated at Connecticut College on Williams Street, in New London, this arboretum contains gardens, hiking trails and 750 acres of native plant collections.

Denison Pequotsepos Nature Center: Seven miles of hiking trails pattern this 125-acre sanctuary. Bird watching is available in four distinct habitats and additionally, birds of prey are kept in special flight enclosures. Guided trips and tours include hikes, and kayak excursions. A museum and gift shop rounds out this outdoor center, open year-long. The Nature Center is located at 109 Pequotsepos Road in Mystic. dpnc.org.

Vineyards

The Connecticut Wine Trail features a number of local wineries and vineyards including Stonington Vineyards, featuring daily wine tastings and a guided winery tour (523 Taughwank Road in Stonington stoningtonvineyards.org), Jonathan Edwards Winery, a Connecticut and California based operation on a beautiful 48-acre hilltop vineyard in North Stonington (74 Chester Maine Road in North Stonington jedwardswinery.com), and Chamard Vineyards, which sits on 40 acres of gently sloping fields on the Connecticut Coast (115 Cow Hill Road in Clinton chamard.com).

Visitors who prefer a “cold one” can stop at Cottrell Brewing Co., a microbrewery at 100 Mechanic Street, Pawcatuck, to sample their ales and lagers.

Performing Arts

The Garde Arts Center is home to live music of all genres, Broadway shows, opera, dance and more. The non-profit, 1,400-seat theater was restored to represent its beginnings in 1926 as a movie/vaudeville house. The Garde is located at 325 State Street in New London. gardearts.org

The Spirit of Broadway is an intimate, 74-seat, professional, award-winning black box theater which produces the very best in off-Broadway, regional and world premiere productions. Nationally recognized for artistic excellence and commitment to producing the finest in new works for the stage, The Spirit of Broadway Theater combines the best in regional talent with professional actors to create an unequalled theater experience. In addition to theatrical productions the theater presents the top names in New York City professional Cabaret talent throughout the year. Located at 24 Chestnut Street in Norwich.

spiritofbroadway.org

The Goodspeed Opera House opened in 1877 to provide Mr. Goodspeed a venue for his love of theater. After his death, the Victorian-style theater went from serving as a militia base during WWI to a general store to a storage depot for the State of Connecticut Highway Department. The building was restored to a theater in 1959 and now this Tony Award winning theater produces three musicals each April through December season. The Goodspeed Opera House is located at 6 Main Street in East Haddam. goodspeed.org

Shopping

Southeastern Connecticut also features a number of shopping opportunities, both for contemporary items and antiques. At the Olde Mystic Village, Coogan Boulevard at Route 27, in Mystic, the goods and services are modern, with more than 60 shops, restaurants and a movie theater, but the environment is definitely 18th century. Shopping outlets popular with customers include Tanger Outlet Center in Westbrook, and Clinton Crossing Premium Outlets in Clinton, and if antique shopping is in the plans the small shops of Putnam, are not to be missed.

Accommodations

Mohegan Sun offers first-class accommodations with its 1,600-rooms in a two tower hotel, but visitors can also choose to stay at a variety of nearby hotels, including the Hyatt Place, Comfort Suites Norwich, Courtyard by Marriott and Holiday Inn, all in Norwich, approximately a 5-to-10 minute drive from Mohegan Sun; and Comfort Inn, Days Inn, Hyatt Place, Residence Inn and the Mystic Marriott located in Mystic about 20 to 30 minutes away.

Recreation

Supercharged Powered by Mohegan Sun is the world's largest indoor multi-level go-kart racing track as well as a family friendly jump experience in their 8,000 square-foot trampoline park. The complex is conveniently located just 20 minutes away from Mohegan Sun at 1 Sachatello Industrial Drive in Montville, CT. There is a bar, dining menu and various opportunities for private parties and birthday events. More information is available at superchargedracing.com